

Small Group Week 1

Welcome to week 1 of your Small Group! We'd love for these groups to be equal parts learning the Word together and also forming relationships within your small group! An ideal approach would be to spend half of your time together watching a short video and discussing it and then the other half of your time growing together as a community. Whether you choose to meet for an hour or maybe more, please strive to find a happy balance between these two!
