

Small Group Week 3

Watch Video: <https://bibleproject.com/explore/video/exodus-1-18> (6 minutes)

- Video Questions;
 1. Would someone like to paraphrase the meaning of the sacrificial lamb in the dinner and the meaning of the blood on the doorframe?
 2. Does the previous question's symbolic meal transform your understanding of Jesus' last supper with his disciples?
 3. How did God demonstrate his patience throughout this first part of Exodus?
 4. At what point do you think Pharaoh reached a point of no return?
 5. How does Israel's grumbling in the Wilderness raise questions about their own gratefulness to God? Are their complaints reasonable?
 6. "Pharaoh has so redefined good and evil according to his own interests, that even the murder of innocent children has become good to him." Does that remind you of anything in our current world?
- Starter Question Suggestions for getting to know your group better
 1. What is your favorite book of the Bible to read and why?
 2. Do you have a favorite verse in the Bible?
 3. If you've been keeping up with the suggested readings, has the Lord revealed anything new to you?

Feel free to keep the conversation going with any of your own questions.

- Prayer Requests/Pray
- Suggested reading for next week; Exodus 19-40
